World Book Day – Thursday 6th March

Dear Parents/Carers,

World Book Day 2025 will take place on Thursday 6th March 2025. This annual celebration of authors, illustrators, books and the joy of reading is one of the highlights of the year at the National Literacy Trust and we can't wait to celebrate it with you!

Throughout the day, the children will be participating in a range of activities. Although we are always trying our best to encourage children to read and see the wonders that a book can offer, this is a wonderful opportunity to learn more about new authors and characters and help our children find that one book that will change their perception of reading! This year we are focussing on Comics and Graphic Novels!

To make the day more memorable, we would like the children and teachers to dress up as their favourite comic, graphic novel or book character! We will be giving out prizes to the children who have put in the most effort so have a look at the World Book Day website for some inspiration!

Parents are invited into school for a whole school assembly from 2.30pm where Mrs Tyler will be sharing learning from the day and some fantastic ideas to get your child reading.

Many thanks for your continued support,

The Grove Team
